Joseph!

He came to the Childrens Home due to his mother dying during childbirth.

His favorite color is “Gods color” (which means white). He wants to be a doctor when he grows up because he loves helping people! Due to a hip issue one of his legs is shorter than the other, so he wears a special shoe with a lift. He’s happy because he just got 2 new pairs of shoes!

He loves jokes and I’ll often hear him yelling from across the property saying, “Kelly, where am I?!” and hiding to see if I can figure out where he is. He’s incredibly spunky, and will never miss out on a dance party!
